Presidents Report

President Randy Krueger discussed Charity Contributions.

The board talked about having a Local charity or charities that we could donate to. We will discuss this at a later date.

President Randy Krueger noted that the National Convention will be in August. The Convention will be held in Miami, Florida. President Randy Krueger was selected to serve on the rules committee at the convention.

President Krueger will meet with Management on Friday July, 18th to iron out grievance award on the BMC casual arbitration that we won.

President Krueger is going to Waterloo to present a $1500.00 check from PAC to Congressman Bruce Braley. We will also presenting a check to Senator Tom Harkin. Randy is encouraging all members to contribute to the PAC fund. (The PAC Fund is organized to help or hurt government officials or to help pass or undermine legislation that could affect our jobs.)

The E-board decided that there will be NO alcohol served by the Union at picnics or other events. Members can bring their own alcohol if they desire.

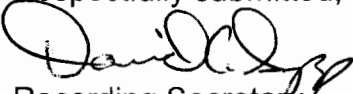

Dave Sapp made a motion to adjourn the meeting
