President's Report

Randy Krueger talked about going to WDC for an informational meeting about how the contract negotiations were progressing. He said that there were still hopes for a contract and negotiations are still in progress.

Randy stated that there will be a "Casual in lieu of Training" conducted at our Local office on July 26th & 27th. This training will be conducted by Sam D'Ambrosio - Vice President, Eastern Region & Paul Hogrogian - Vice President, Northeastern Region.

President Krueger stated that we will have one (1) meeting a year for the Council and possibly have eight (8) hours of training and a meeting when convening at this time.

Randy has had suggestions from members about having a Christmas party and will look into this for the future.

Randy stated that we are waiting on a bid from a Union contractor to do some reconstruction at our Local office. He give us a bid for knocking out a wall to make a bigger room for meetings and training. Also in this bid, we are looking for cost of new carpet, painting and replacing ceiling.
